	25-08-2005 Shri Praveen Das, counsel for the applicants. Shri Alok Bakshi, counsel for the respondents. Heard. The present petition has been filed by the applicants for extension of time granted for deciding the representation of the respondents. This Court vide order dated 18/10/2004 has disposed of W.P. No.3907/03 and other connected writ petitions with the direction to consider and decide the representations made by the present respondents in accordance with law within three months from the date of receipt of the representations. Learned counsel for the respondents submits that sufficient time has elapsed. In fact, three months time was granted to consider and decide the representations but now nine months have passed. On the other hand, learned counsel for the applicants submits that there were several difficulties and as such the representations could not be decided. He however prays for further time till 31st October, 2005. Having considered the facts and circumstances and the material on record, the application is allowed. The time granted for deciding the representations of the present respondents is extended till 31st October, 2005. Let the representations be decided positively till that date. With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of. C.C. H/-	Sd/- Fakhruddin Judge
